Call for Submissions

LightBox Winter Members Exhibit

"Solace in Silence"

December 12, 2026 - January 30, 2027

Submission Deadline - Saturday, November 7, 2026

In this exhibit at LightBox we are looking for your finest work with the theme,

Solace in Silence

Juried by LightBox Member Joni Kabana

A winter's night with the moon reflecting on the snow, a moment awake in a quiet house while others sleep, a stroll down a gravel lane at dusk. Where do you find solace? In what moments do you welcome silence?

Show us your visuals of a momentary pause. The places and things that make you feel grounded and where your mind reaches when you're stressed or grieving or weary. Is it within your home? In the vastness of wilderness areas? Or found in the delicacy of a flower? There are many ways we seek, and find, solace.

Silence has a way of giving us relief. In this day of rapid fire imagery and political chaos, let's all still our minds and with this showing of personal pictures, give ourselves a moment of solace within the silence.

Members submit images at no cost.

This will be an inclusive call, meaning that every LightBox Member who submits, will be juried into the exhibit. We hope you will enjoy being part of this exhibit. The show will be shared in the gallery, social networks, online on the showpage, and in our newsletter.
